4th Sunday of Easter

Good and faithful Shepherd, you have left the ninety-nine to go seek the one. In our darkest moments, you have loved us. And in turn, you have sent us to seek out the lost and broken-hearted. Enable us to be profoundly committed to loving your people and bearing witness to new life that is found in you, Amen.

MUSINGS

The 4th Sunday of Easter – Some Musings

“I am the good shepherd.”

The afternoon sun was doing its best to keep shining but its efforts were hampered by times with the bank of fluffy white clouds forcing it to play hide and seek with the earth below. The temperatures have been rising and the leaves on the willows are clearly seen now rather than just being a hint of green on the branches. It's a day of gentle breeze and the knowledge that spring is finally here. Days like this when I was a child meant it was time to bring the herds down from the upper pastures, the cows with their newborn calves, the steers needing to be fattened. It was a time for new life and great blessings. We'd plant some wheat and barley as the animals needed fodder during the winter. Dad was very solicitous of his animals making sure they were fed and well cared for at all times. He knew what it meant to be a good husbandman. And he taught us that animals typically “follow the leader”. The reason he said that on some occasions there was the possibility of a stampede.

For our Lord, trying to keep His people safe and under His loving care, He tells us He is the Good Shepherd, one who cares about His flock and does all He can to keep them safe. But we can also play that childhood game of “follow the leader” taking up the latest trend, telling ourselves that “everyone else is doing it” and generally ignoring the loving care He wants to lavish on us.

We go astray, losing our way and finding ourselves in the midst of a life that not only doesn't give us joy but doesn't give us hope of eternity with Him. It's a path that leads to sorrow and despair and that's not what our loving Saviour wants for us; after all He told us that He came to give us life and life to the full. The path of follow the leader does nothing to make our lives and the lives of others full or fruitful. It is a life that gives temporary pleasure but eventually to ultimate unhappiness. Yet all too often that is the path we choose. This is all a great mystery to us and while our minds cannot grasp the fullness of that mystery, we miss the beauty and the sublimity of the great love our Lord has for us, His often recalcitrant and wayward people. It's one of many reasons that I'm religious: I know that our Lord's love and compassion cannot be understood or analyzed.

Jesus tells us that He is the Good Shepherd, to be brave rather than fearful but in times like we are experiencing that message can be very difficult to live by. However, our Easter journey gives us great hope and if we truly believe that He is the Good Shepherd, we have nothing to fear.

Wishing you a week of many blessings and many small miracles.

PARISH NEWS & EVENTS

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS: This Sunday, April 25th is the 58th World Day of Prayer for Vocations. On that day, the Holy Father has asked all Catholic to intercede for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests in prayer throughout the week.
- Encourage your children or grandchildren to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

FOR HIS BAPTISM THIS SUNDAY: Congratulations to godparents, parents, and families of newly baptized: Calix Bryle Gonzales! May you all be filled with love and peace from the Holy Spirit as you take your first steps in the Catholic Church.

BISHOP THOMAS JOSEPH LOBSINGER O.M.I: We are sorry we missed it... April 15th marked the 21st anniversary of the tragic accident and death of Bishop Thomas Lobsinger. He was our Bishop of Whitehorse from 1987 until his death in 2000. We remember his great love and service for the people of our Diocese as he still remains in our thoughts and prayers. May he rest in Peace in Eternal life.

NET FUNDRAISING: We are grateful that our Diocese and Sacred Heart parish have brought a NET Ministries team to Whitehorse. The current NET team will be here until the end of May and a new team will come next October to continue the work that has been started. The team is involved in music ministry, leading the high school and middle school youth groups at Sacred Heart, doing outreach to youth in our high school, elementary schools and missions.

They are part of a larger network of young missionaries who are taking a year off to bring Canadian youth towards a deeper love of Christ. They are here to support our Catholic schools and to be another avenue (peer-led) for inviting youth, whether Catholic, Christian or secular, into an authentic dialogue about faith and spirituality.

The NET Project is an investment into Catholic youth ministry in the Yukon. The Diocese and Sacred Heart are sharing this expense. The cost for the current team is approximately $42,000. Sacred Heart is responsible for $21,000. We made a goal to raise $25,000 for this year to cover any additional youth ministry costs. We ask for your prayers that their work will touch the hearts of our youth. Also, if you are able to support this ministry financially, that would be much appreciated. Donations can be made by cheque payable to Sacred Heart Parish, or online at <http://www.sacredheartcathedral.ca/donate.html> (Canada Helps). Please indicate that it is for the NET Project. If you would like to know more about NET, you can visit their website at netcanada.ca, on Instagram at Whitehorse youth, or contact Andrea Lefebvre at 867-668-2768.

UNLOCKING THE MYSTERY OF THE BIBLE STUDY: Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen narrative books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you discover the story of salvation history and understand how you fit into God's plan. This eight-session study program explores all twelve time periods of The Bible Timeline. <https://ascensionpress.com/products/unlocking-the-mystery-of-the-bible-workbook> We meet at 7 pm, in our rectory (in small group) for 8 Wednesdays until May 26.
