GODPARENTS

Godparents play an important role in the life of a child. A child's Baptism is a very special day. Baptism is the first of the seven sacraments in the life of the Catholic Church. As such, it is the gateway into the Christian life. This sacrament can only be celebrated once in a person's life, making it a day to be remembered.

The Church follows Canon Law for requirements regarding godparents. These are not a judgment on other people, but rather a way to ensure that a child baptized into the Catholic Church has a Godparent who can relate to their faith and help to pass it on.

Canon Law sections 872-874 state that Godparents for baptism are:

- at least 16 years old
- fully initiated into Catholic Church (have received sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist)
- not the child's mother or father
- in good standing with the Catholic Church; if married, then married in a Catholic ceremony or else have received a blessing of the marriage from the Church

In order to baptise a child you need to have at least one Godparent. You can have two Godparents, but in this case one should be male and one female. You can't have more than two Godparents registered in the Church Register. As long as you have one qualified Catholic Godparent you can also choose one baptized Christian, who is not Catholic, as a Christian witness.
