PARISH EVENTS

SACRED HEART EDGE YOUTH GROUP (Youth on Fire): Youth on Fire is on every FRIDAY, from 6:30 to 8:00 pm, at the CYO Hall. Grades 5 to 8 are welcome! Attendance is limited so we ask that you confirm your child's presence by calling Andrea 333-3939. Bring your indoor shoes and your face mask or face shield! Faith filled fun awaits!

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD: CGS is a program of Christian formation for the children based on the teaching methods of Maria Montessori and drawing on the most essential element of scripture and liturgy. CGS helps children to name, explore and deepen their relationship with God as the foundation of their lives. In CGS, the classroom, called atrium, is a spiritual environment – a place of worship rather than a traditional classroom. It is a place of work that becomes prayer and conversation with God. We are pleased to again be offering Level One this year. Level One is for children 3 to 5 years old (preschool to kindergarten). The program started on Oct. 16 and will run every Saturday morning from 10:30 to noon. Our atrium is located in the lower level of the rectory. For further information register your child, please contact Caroline@ 334-6851 or csknickle@gmail.com. The program is limited to 10 children so be sure to register early.

AGM NOTICE: The Braeburn Lake Christian Camp AGM will be on Wednesday, November 3rd at 6 pm at the Whitehorse United Church.

SUNDAY COLLECTION: Total Sunday collection for the month of August is $11,629.85 and September is $ 10,971.20. Thank you so much for your generosity.

THE 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time - SOME MUSINGS

“ . . . whoever wishes to be great among you must become your servant. . . ”

The trees are clothed in radiant colours of gold, red and green; the creatures that inhabit that world are busy preparing for the coming cold and snow: geese honk overhead competing with the quacking of ducks and amid the cacophony of sound, I hear the soft cooing of the doves. I wonder if the red leaves on the maple feel superior to the yellow leaves of the little apple tree just turning to gold. Do the geese with their loud voices think they are more important than the quiet cooing of the doves? Nature does not compete with itself but gives glory to the Father, each in its own way. Picking up two fallen leaves of the tree in my front yard, I see that each leaf is different. Why is it then, that we who are more sentient than these things, strive to be the most important person? The best leaders are those who have the good of all at heart are the best to follow. I've worked with both kinds of leaders and I always found that those who had a clear focus on the good of all were the best to work for. They not only keep those under them apprised of the goals for which to strive but work side by side with others to see them accomplished. The others who simply expect others to do what they are told while being given no indication of the ultimate purpose of a rule or an order make the lives of others very difficult. Being a servant leader is not easy and we have so few role models for that call. That's why St. Paul tells us we have just that kind leader, high priest, in our Lord. We are commissioned to follow that example and it would be a wonderful world if all our leaders were that kind of servant leader. Would wars stop, the hungry and naked be taken care of, and would all of us have all that we need to live comfortably? I think that would be the case. Instead of vying for power, we'd all, each and every one of us, look for and alleviate the pain and suffering. I find that like the apostles, I don't always understand His call. Although we've had two or more centuries to come to that understanding it can remain hazy still. We are not called to save the world but to do our part in assisting when and where we can.

I recall a story I read many years ago. A man was walking along a beach and seeing jellyfish that had been stranded on shore at high tide picked them up and threw them back into the sea. Another fellow came along and said, "You know, you can't save them all. Do you think you're saving them?" The first man, bent down, picked up another jellyfish and threw it into the sea and replied, "Well, I just saved that one." That's all any of us can do, when we see a need and it's within our power to assist, let's do it. Let's work building the Kingdom one person at a time. And let's not keep a tally sheet. We're meant to do what we can as His disciples, not out of some need for hurrahs and accolades.

While the scene behind me is a riot of colour and sound, there's a great peace in it as I look upon it. The harmony of nature always astonishes me with the peace and tranquility with which it fills me. Each time I see it, something new and wonderful catches my attention and holds it for a time. It's then that I realize just how much I have to thank God for. The words of Psalm 103 fill me with joy as I can say, "Bless the Lord, oh my soul." I sat quiet and still the other night and watched a small edge of the moon give the world a glimpse of the coming glory of the moon at its full. It will make the earth bright casting moon shadows below. It's not the sun. We can take a lesson from that. While we may not do everything, let's do what we can to help our brothers and sisters in need and not seek recognition for it. And should we find ourselves the recipients of the help of others, let's accept it with a heartfelt thanksgiving

Wishing you a week of many blessings and many small miracles.

Betty Bruch

Saint John Paul II

October 22

SAINT JOHN PAUL GREW UP IN A TIME AND PLACE WHERE THERE WAS WAR ALL AROUND HIM. HE PRAYED AND WORKED TO BRING PEACE TO MANY NATIONS. WE SHOULD TRY TO BE PEACEFUL IN OUR FAMILIES AND SCHOOLS, AND PRAY FOR PEACE IN COUNTRIES WHERE PEOPLE ARE AT WAR.

Isaiah 53

Word-Find

Try to find in the puzzle the words written in CAPITALS in today's first reading.

Use the leftover letters to fill in the blanks at the end!

The Lord was PLEASED to CRUSH him in INFIRMITY.

If he GIVES his life as an OFFERING for sin,
he shall see his descendents in a long LIFE,
and the will of the Lord will be accomplished through him.

Because of his AFFLICTION
he shall see the LIGHT in FULLNESS of DAYS;
through his SUFFERING, my SERVANT shall JUSTIFY many,
and their GUILT he shall bear.

Do not live any longer in yourself, but let Jesus Christ live in you in such a way that the virtue of this Divine Savior may be resplendent in all your actions, in order that all may see in you a true portrait of the Crucified and sense the sweetest fragrance of the holy virtues of the Lord, in interior and exterior modesty, in patience, in gentleness, suffering, charity, humility and in all others that follow.

St Paul of the cross
