III. NEW SEMINARIANS IN OUR PARISH

For God so loved His people in the Diocese of Whitehorse that He sent again Two (2) seminarians in our Parish to spend their time, talents and skills and other resources in collaboration with our Bishop, Rector, Priests and the parishioners. They are Bro. JUAMPAOLO MELENDEZ from Chicago, USA and Bro. DANIEL BEUGRE from Ivory Coast, Africa. Bro. Juampaolo will be with us for Two Months while Bro. Daniel will be for One Month. He is Freshman in Theology while Bro. Juampaolo is Second Year in Philosophy at the Redemptoris Mater Seminary in Toronto, Canada.

Bro. Juampaolo (left) decided to enter the seminary out of gratitude of what the Lord has done with his life and for what God continues to do. Also, by being grateful of the history that the Lord has given him.

Bro. Daniel (right) decided to give his life to the Lord after he experienced that he belonged to God because He saved him from the lie of this world. So, out of gratitude, he decided to follow His plan and not his own.

We are very grateful that our place is conceived and believed to be a good mission area for the young people who have heard God's call and followed His commands. May we will be able to help them deeply in their discernment to the vocation of Priesthood, strongly grow in their faith to the Lord, master the simplicity of life and humility in serving the people in all walks of life, and pray for them to successfully fulfill their missions and back to the Seminary to continue the formation of their journey. Let us Welcome them with great warmth of joy and thanksgiving to the God.

July 20: Our Lady's Saturday

To dedicate Saturday in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary is not a personal invention but rather an ancient Church custom which is based on the fact that during Black Saturday, Our Lady was alone and all Christians want to accompany and console her after the death of Her Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Pray the Holy Rosary daily with your family and community.

GENERAL AUDIENCE

POPE FRANCIS, Saint Peter's Square

Cycle of Catechesis. The Spirit and the Bride. The Holy Spirit guides. the people of God towards Jesus our hope.

1. *The Spirit of God was hovering over the waters (A Summary - Wednesday, 29 May 2024)

Dear brothers and sisters:

Today we begin a new series of Catechesis on "The Spirit and the Bride," focusing on how the Holy Spirit guides God's people throughout salvation history. From the very beginning, the Spirit of God is at work, bringing order and beauty out of chaos. This ongoing transformation is fully realized in Jesus Christ. Saint Paul tells us that "creation has been groaning in travail," (Rom 8:22) a reality that remains true, and emphasizes our need to address both our internal and external chaos. In light of this, Saint Francis of Assisi offers contemplation and praise as a remedy and demonstrates how to embrace creation freely. Let us then invite the Spirit of God into our lives, to transform our hearts and heal our world: "Come Holy Spirit, Creator come, enlighten our minds and fill with heavenly grace the hearts you have created."

3. *"The wind blows where it wishes". Where there is the Spirit of God, there is freedom

(A Summary Wednesday, 05 June 2024)

Dear brothers and sisters:

In our ongoing catechesis on the Spirit and the Bride, we now centre our attention on the Biblical name of Holy Spirit, which in Hebrew is Ruach, meaning breath, wind, or spirit. This name highlights the Spirit's profound power and freedom. Jesus likens the Spirit to the wind that blows where it wills, thus emphasizing the freedom of the Holy Spirit, who not only creates and inspires but always remains free, bestowing his gifts "as he wills" (1 Cor 12:11). Saint Paul affirms this, stating: "Now the Lord is Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom" (2 Cor 3:17). This freedom is given to us as a gift so that we can do God's will, rather than merely following our personal desires. Where do we attain this freedom of the Spirit, so contrary to the spirit of selfishness? The answer is in the words that Jesus spoke to his followers: "If the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed" (Jn 8:36). Let us ask Jesus, through his Holy Spirit, to make us truly free. Free to serve with love and joy.

Preach the truth as if we had a million voices, for it is silence that kills the world. ~St. Catherine of Siena

Prayer is, therefore, the source and origin of every upward journey toward God. ~St. Bonaventure

Do you wish to rise? Begin by descending. You plan a tower that will pierce the clouds?

Lay first the foundation of humility. ~St. Augustine
